Comments/Notes.

— Objectives

Sheffield Civic Trust will champion the very best in architecture and urban design for the city and its suburbs. It will bring vision to the changing cityscape and campaign for the protection and sensitive re-use of our heritage.

This trust is open to all the people of Sheffield and aims to actively engage them in the changing shape of our city.

— What We're About

If you've ever thought that things should be different in Sheffield's development, then now is the time for you to get involved and informed about your city.

The Sheffield Civic Trust (SCT) is an exciting new opportunity for you to join in the debate about the future of this great city. As a non-political, grassroots organisation, the SCT will aim to bring the views of all parts of the community out into the open and to the attention of the "powers that be", who are in the process of reshaping Sheffield as we know it.

SCT intends to organise a programme of events to encourage the community to speak up on the burning issues of development in the city, often with the opportunity to hear from experts in design and planning.

We intend to engage local planning authorities in discussion about the major schemes which stand to fundamentally transform the urban fabric of Sheffield, drawing on the views we gather from our membership.

The SCT wants to hear from you — this is your chance to be heard!

So what are you waiting for? To have voting rights at the AGM, be informed about events and become involved in the activities of the trust, join today!
